PUBLIC COMMENT: None

REPORTS:

Planning Commission: Schultz discussed the Verizon tower, changes made to the wood boiler and septic evaluation ordinances. The planning commission is still discussing changes to the medical marijuana ordinance.

Zoning Administrator: (Attached)

Fire Board Report: Jeff Mercer discussed the dive team information that was received by the board. He stated that the liability coverage the department has covers the dive team due to the fact they are all either EMT’s or firefighters.

Newaygo Community District Library: Jamie Baker stated that an audit has been done and they are waiting for the final report. Attendance is increasing. The board and director are also looking into having non-resident library cards.

Coolbough Management Commission: The commission met at the Coolbough to discuss cleanup of the pine tree cutting. The cost to clean both areas was approximately $14,000. A neighbor of the Coolbough offered their equipment to clean up the area around the pavilion and parking lot. A work day has been scheduled for June 24 beginning at 8:00 a.m.

Chain of Lakes Sewer Authority: Nelson stated at the last meeting there was discussion regarding the raises granted at a previous meeting. Nelson and Schultz are going to schedule a meeting at the lift station on 56th St. with the plant manager to try to get the odor problem under control.
